Report from Last Friday January 11 Anne Jackson

The greeters were Lori Hall, Shawn McCombs and Paul White. The Sergeants at Arms were Anne Jackson and David Atkins. The invocation was given by Cathy Littleton Wahl. Melissa Pantier debuted as the song leader (and wrote a song for the occasion). She was accompanied by Sharon Zuiderveld.

Guests included Penny Mitchell with Phyllis Lape and Brent Powers with Kent Kilpatrick. Kent Morris accompanied Anne Jackson. Lisa Speer was with Mike Schneider. Our exchange student Viviana was also present. Craig Albers led recognitions.

The meeting was a club assembly where members hear about "things happening" in the club. Kristen Heaton urged folks to get involved with the Valentine's Dance which will be held on Friday, February 8th at Hamilton's. If anyone has questions about the event they can contact Kristen at 479-5836.

Diana Olinger updated the group about the 90th anniversary dinner. The Rotary International President will be present. Keith Lape gave an update with progress on the Bass Tournament. Rick Mogler discussed the membership drive. Kevin Heitz talked about the Club Foundation and Helen Downey discussed the GSE team and Rotary Foundation.

Kent Morris drew unsuccessfully for the 50/50 drawing.

The four way test was recited and the meeting was adjourned at 1:00.
