Rotary Friday Todd Evans

January 27, 2006 brought about another bell-ringing edition of the Jacksonville Noon Rotary. Starring: President Trent Cain as the Bell Ringer. Keith Lape, Alban Haxhinasto and Ed Cannon handled the greeting duties professionally. Bully for you gentlemen.

Sam Stuart handled the invoking in his always-classy way. Tiffany Warmowski was the song leader. It was her first outing so she decided two songs were enough. You did a fine job Two Song Tiff.

Diana Olinger reminded us about the dance on February 10 for Valentine's Day. Tickets can be purchased at the meetings and you are encouraged to sell tickets to your friends. Kurt Gwillim let us know there is a Scholar/Athlete meeting coming up soon. Phyllis Lape will be putting together a schedule for volunteers at Franklin School. Todd Evans informed everyone that our Outbound student in Brazil is doing well. He also asked the members to keep the evening of February 18 open to help chaperone the Youth Exchange Overnight. Wally Jamison recruited volunteers to usher the spring Symphony concert for the area schoolchildren.

We had four guests. Don Miller joined us from the Alton club. Harold Gates, from the Sunrise Club, visited as well. Alex Cole was a guest of Helen Kuhn. Our exchange student from Italy, Cecilia Amadei, graced us with her presence as well.

A new member was inducted. Lee Hovasse, the superintendent of schools, has joined Rotary. Welcome aboard Lee!

Craig Albers led us in Recognitions. Noel Beard and Helen were the Seargent-At-Arms. John Power, hard to believe, bought extra tickets for a booze raffle and won twice. That was on Thursday night at the Chamber Annual Meeting. Ginny Fanning announced the Illinois Food Expo will be at Hamilton's this Thursday from 4 to 7.

The program was given by our very own Wolf Fuhrig. He talked about a group called Great Decisions that holds foreign policy discussions. They have been in Jacksonville for nearly 40 years. They meet Tuesday at 7:30, room 16, Baxter Hall.

Next meeting, Friday, February 3, noon, Hamilton's.

Toni Long – it was reported at Rotary last Friday that Toni's mother, Ruth Gould had passed away. Memorial mass will be this Thursday February 2 at 10:30 AM at the Church of Our Saviour. Our thoughts are with Toni and the family.
