LAST FRIDAY

President Kevin Heitz rang the bell and the show was officially on the road. Shawn McCombs and David Fisher provided the greetings. Allen Stare invoked. Fred Clinton led the singing with a Valentine's theme. Sharon Zuiderveld accompanied on piano.

Anne Jackson is heading up the Big Brother/Big Sister Bowl for Kid's Sake Jacksonville Rotary bowling team. Please donate to support the team. Katie Orgish is the contact person if you are interested in helping with Relay for Life. The event is at JHS this year on June 29 & 30. A kickoff meeting will be held February 20. Phyllis Lape needs help with the essay contest for Franklin school.

Keith Toby brought his wife Mary. Alban Haxhinasto had Nathan Carls as a guest. Esther Henning, our German exchange student, was there as well.

Carol Carl led Recognitions. Fred Osburn and Anne Jackson were sergeants-at-arms. Carol's daughter made the dean's list at Quincy College. Tom Atkins gave us some interesting data compiled by the Chamber on the Morgan County work force. David Atkins thanked the club members for their support while his son was ill. Keith Lape presented a Rotary banner from a club he visited in New Zealand. Sharon Zuiderveld's son, who is in med school, is presenting a paper. Allen Stare bragged on his daughter Jenny, telling us she is doing well at Eisenhower. Tiffany is a registered sign language interpreter and is available for hire.

The program was given by Sam Stuart, Bob Foulk, John Kay, Ken Venvertloh and Tony Williams. The topic was Volunteerism in Churches.

Amanda Deady drew unsuccessfully for the 50/50.
