Rotary Friday Todd Evans

The President Trent Cain was back in action and he did a fine job of ringing and speaking. Greg Hillis, Shawn McCombs, Bob Leach and Phyllis Lape ensured every hand was shook and dollar was collected. Tiffany Warmowski invoked. Fred Osburn led the singing and was accompanied by Sharon Zuiderveld on the piano.

Elaine Williams, daughter of Tom Atkins, graced us with her presence. Rich Ott was entrusted to run the video camera during the program and also came with Tom. Sherrie Taylor, one of Cecilia's host mothers, came as a guest of Alban Haxhinasto and Kurt Gwillim. Cecilia Amadei was in attendance as well.

Kevin Heitz announced the club will be divided into teams to support Bowl For Kids Sake. If you normally donate, please help us out and donate through Rotary this year. The event is April 7, 8 and 9. Keith Lape informed us we need to provide some Sgt.-At-Arms for multi-district PETS. It is in Springfield at the Crowne Plaza at the end of March.

Diana Olinger had some last minute announcements concerning the Valentine's Day Dance. Everything went well Friday evening and everyone seemed to have a good time. A big Thank You to the committee for putting this event together. Mike Schneider sent around the Club Service calendar. Lori Hall said last Friday was the last day to get your picture taken for the new directory. Kelly Staake said it is 11 weeks until district conference. Time to sign up. Todd Evans requested volunteers for the Youth Overnight at the Y on 2/18 and 2/19. Many spots still available. Fred Clinton, Tom Atkins and Cathy Littleton-Wahl gave rotations.

Our very own Tom Atkins and Allen Stare brought the program to us. They were hilarious. They did have some help. They managed to bring in some older, out of shape Olympic athletes for interviews.

See you at Rotary This Friday - Bring a Guest!
