Rotary Last Friday, February 15

Anne Jackson

President Mike Schneider called the February 15th meeting of the Jacksonville Rotary Club to order at noon at Hamilton's 110 North East. Phyllis Lape, Kelly Gross and Ginny Fanning served as greeters. Brian Ganz was the song leader. Sharon Zuiderveld offered the invocation. Tiffany Warmowski gave the Rotary Minute. Anne Jackson took the minutes.

Announcements included the following: Tiffany Warmowski was looking for help with the youth overnight. Carol Carl encouraged volunteers to get their Ferris wheel dolls returned. Diane Seufert thanked the volunteers who helped with the Valentines Dance. Helen Downey reported that the GSE team leaves for Thailand in 2 weeks. Melissa Pantier got a pat on the back for the terrific "new member board" she developed. There were many guests in attendance. Phyllis Lape brought Gilbert Yale, Penny Mitchell and Marty Hale. John Calise hosted Kenny Sturgeon. Paul Findley brought his grand daughter in law Grace Findley. Tom Hill was with Brian Ganz. Rick Mogler brought Les Huddle and Shawn Ardis. Our exchange student Vivi was in attendance.

Lori Hall led recognitions. Richard Johnson and Carol Carl served as Sgt at Arms. The following members rotated: Shawn McCombs, Allen Stare, Mike Ludvigsen, Richard Basden, Helen Kuhn, Bob Faulk, Tony Williams, Paul Findley, Noel Beard, Kristen Heaton, John Calise, Tiff Warmowski, Melissa Pantier, Jean Jumper and John Kay. Gilbert Yale and Penny Mitchell were inducted as new members. Dick Rawlings introduced the program. Bob Church spoke on early Illinois mapping. Tony Williams won the 50/50 drawing and gave $100.00 of the winnings back to the club. The 4 way test was recited and President Schneider adjourned the meeting.
