ROTARY REPORT - Todd Evans

President Trent Cain rang the bell at 12:01 to get things rolling for another meeting of the Jacksonville Noon Rotary. Katie Orgish, Helen Downey, Ginny Fanning and Diana Olinger were all lined up to greet us. Craig Albers invoked. Toni Long, back from a long sabbatical, led the club in song. Sharon Zuiderveld accompanied her on piano. Trent reminded us that registration for district conference is underway. If you want a discount, you need to have your registration in by February 28. Conference runs April 28 and 29. Fred Osborn asked for members to at least attend one of the sessions.

Kurt Gwillim is putting together a golf outing in conjunction with the conference. There will be morning and afternoon sessions on the 27th of April. Diana Olinger thanked those who helped with the dance. Over 200 were in attendance at the dance. Guests included Cecilia Amadei and Tiffany Warmowski's grandma.

Todd led recognitions. Allen Stare led off Rotations by thanking the Valentine's Day committee. He enjoyed the dance but then ended up with Ballroom Dancing lessons. Toni Long told everyone how much she enjoyed the Lubricator while she was gone. In support of the author, she recommended people give a dollar. I think we collected fifteen cents. Craig Albers admitted he had a column in the paper. Trent Cain thanked the area firefighters for saving his neighbor from a recent fire. Sharon said the library now has books on tape via their website. Ginny Fanning told everyone that the Business Expo is on Thursday at Hamilton's.

Kevin Eckhoff gave the program. Kevin's hobby is collecting autographs. He showed us a ton of pictures of himself with various stars. At the end of the meeting, he had a small quiz and gave away autographs from Bob Costas and Dan Akroyd.

Next meeting, 2/24, noon, Hamilton's.
