ROTARY REPORT - Todd Evans

What a glorious day at Jacksonville Noon Rotary. The bell was ringing, birds were singing and we eagerly anticipated some more Fun Time with President Trent Cain. Dave Fisher and Skip Nelson greeted and sold 50/50 tickets. Bob Foulk invoked. Brian Ganz led us in song and was accompanied by John Kay.

During announcements, Trent reminded everyone of the upcoming District Conference. Jim Shipp was there to volunteer us to get up in the wee hours of the morning for the Bass Tournament on April 9. Rick Mogler said we need a couple students to sign up for RYLA, which is in Peoria from 3/31 to 4/2. Fred Clinton needs volunteers to help him resurrect Larry Judd's tree program. Fred Osborn mentioned the Foundation provided a matching grant to help disabled children in Argentina.

Monica and Lindsay Johnson were the guests of Amanda Deady. Rosemary Tendick graced our presence as a guest of Ron's. Nancy Burdick and Luke Fairless, co-workers of Brian Ganz, joined us. Jason McDowell brought his wife Mary Ellen. Last, but not least, our exchange student Cecilia.

Todd Evans led Recognitions. Fred Clinton gave kudos to Tony Williams for being proactive in Jacksonville with the Do What It Takes Committee. Helen Downey announced a new concept in forming a Paul Harris Circle. Judy Tighe announced the upcoming Bridal Expo. Trent Cain said his son-in-law is doing well in Kuwait. Jess Chapman is back from Disney World. While there, he verified it is a small world after all. Lynn Pannel told us she was glad to be back from Sanibel Island. Jason McDowell announced that Westfair is doing an Italian Buffet fundraiser on 3/12 and he has tickets.

Jean Jumper supplied the program. She talked about all of the help the community receives via the United Way. Jean's helpers with the program were Bob Leach, Clare Lynd Porter and Amanda Deady with her little sister Lindsay. They told us about the impact United Way programs have had on them.

Next meeting, 3/3/06, noon at Hamilton's.
