President Trent Cain, led the way on 3/24 with a ringing of the bell and a hearty “Good Afternoon” to all of us in attendance. Tony Williams, Shawn McCombs and Jim Shipp were the greeters. Tony pulled double-duty as the invoker. Fred Osburn flew solo once again as there was no piano player.

Helen Downey made an announcement about Scholar Athlete. If you can help, please do so. Jim Shipp issued last minute instructions on the Bass Tournament. Congratulations were given to Dick Rawlings on his win in the primary election held last week.

Cecilia Amadei made a guest appearance. Helen Kuhn brought her father, Alex Cole along and announced they have all the easements to start laying the pipe for the water co-op. Dick brought his son-in-law Chris Carroll. Dick will be a grandfather in let us say eight to nine months. Jean Jumper brought along the whole Interact Club from JHS.

Alban Haxhinasto showed us all up and brought in a new member, Chris Lyons. Welcome to the club, Chris!

Jean Jumper led Recognitions. There were a ton and I did not write them down. Good job, congratulations or condolences, whichever fits.
