ROTARY REPORT April 14 - Todd Evans

El Presidente, Trent Cain, rang the bell to kick things off. Greeting were handled by Greg Hillis and others. Wally Jamison delivered the invocation. Tom Atkins led Songs and Sharon Zuiderveld accompanied him. Announcements: Kurt Gwillim still needs people to golf on Thursday 4/27 as part of the district conference. Anne Jackson said to let her know if there are any mistakes in the new directories and if you want to be videotaped for the club history project, you need to contact her now. Judy Tighe is looking for people to help with the Franklin Elementary Job Shadowing on May 5. Greg Hillis still needs assistance with Diapers to Backpacks on April 29. Brian Ganz revealed that basically his entire life has been a sham. He came out of the closet and announced he is really a Cubs fan.

Guests were many and unknown. Rest assured guests, you are welcome back anytime. Helen Downey conducted Rotations. Ed Ecker has a grandson who is a good sport. Ernie Downey and Greg need to wear their turkey costumes next Friday.

Chet Wynn presented the program. He discussed all of the new and planned changes at Passavant. I doubt there are very many towns comparable to Jacksonville that has a hospital with all of the capabilities of ours. They are rated highly in different categories throughout the state and can perform most medical procedures.

Next meeting, 4/21, noon, Hamilton's
