Rotary Last Friday, April 15

The Noon Rotary Club regular meeting was held Friday April 15 at Hamilton's with Kurt Gwillim presiding. Greeters were Toni Long and Bob Leach. The Pledge of Allegiance was recited, followed by singing of one verse of America. The Invocation was given by Craig Albers.

Keith Lape thanked the workers for the Bass Tournament and noted there were approximately 175 people at the weigh-in. Wolf Fuhrig read an article from the Wall Street Journal on the role Rotary played in eradicating Polio. Brian Ganz announced that a bus is available to transport fans to the Cubs/Cards game on the 24th of July. Tickets are still available and portions of the ticket money will be matched by the Cardinals for Literacy projects. The Franklin Teacher recognition luncheon is April 22nd. Diapers to Backpacks will be April 23rd. Rick Mogler noted the Scholar Athlete banquet is in need of 5 more table hosts. He also thanked the Interact kids for helping with the Tournament and Mike Schneider for assisting with the expert grilling of brats and dogs. Todd Evans asked for a host for the exchange student from Italy in August. Tiffany Warmowski thanked the club for the opportunity to travel to Argentina and John Power for the leniency at work to enable her to go with the GSE team. Kurt thanked Brad and Tammy Floreth for hosting the social. He read a thank you from Camp Care A Lot for our donation. Keith Lape passed along a Thank You from Dr. Bone for his induction as a Paul Harris Fellow.

Eric Dolbeare, District Governor and Carol Bradshaw were on hand as Eric presented Wally Jamison with the Zone Literacy Award for his dedication and integral involvement with Franklin Grade School.

Toni Long led the club in boisterous song, (pantolones optional!) with the accompaniment of Sharon Zuiderveld.

Our guests were Allen Stare with Todd Evans and Alban Haxhinasto and Visiting Rotarian Jay Jamison from the Sunrise Club.

Recognitions were led by Ron Tendick. Rotations were given by Rich Basden, Sharon Zuiderveld, Craig Albers, Fred Osburn, John Power, Tiffany Warmowski, and Wally Jamison. Helen Kuhn was inducted as our newest member with the assistance of Wally Jameson.

Kurt introduced Trent Cain who gave the program on Air Evac Lifeteam, its services and membership program.
