ROTARY REPORT April 21 - Todd Evans

The bell rang. This time under the careful guidance of President-elect Kevin Heitz. Dick Rawlings and Phyllis Lape did professional greetings. Father Ken did the invoking. Tom Atkins, with his able-bodied sidekick Sharon Zuiderveld, provided the musical entertainment. Glenn and Diana Olinger did an excellent job portraying the couple from the show 'Green Acres'.

We had many announcements. Kurt Gwillim thanked those who helped with the Scholar/Athlete banquet. Judy Tighe needs a few more folks to pick up and deliver children and businesses to host them on May 5 for Job Shadowing with Franklin Elementary. Fred Clinton let it be known that upgrade work needs to be done on the wheel in conjunction with the Gateway Project. May 6 has been slated as the day to place the seats on the wheel.

We had visiting Rotarians and a couple of other guests. Don Snider, the new surgeon at Passavant, was on hand. He will be transferring to our club from Vincennes, IN. Harold Gates and Jay Jamison joined us from the morning club. Kristen Heaton made a second appearance and is going to join our interesting little group in the near future. Cecilia Amadei was there even though she was on Spring Break. She has better attendance than most of our members.

Helen Downey led Recognitions. Dick Johnson and Paul White performed Sargent-at-Arms duties. Lynne Pennel announced it was 20 years ago that her daughter was the Scholar Athlete for JHS. Helen thanked the sunrise club for hosting the GSE team on Tuesday. We all were presented with the opportunity to pay a dollar to see Ernie Downey and Greg Hillis dress up in their turkey hunting outfits.

Jay Jamison was the program and he talked about his days in the circus. We should have Jay speak every week. He can make an adventure out of walking down the street. He noted that the circus was the best employer he ever had. Very entertaining program.

Next meeting, 4/28, DISTRICT CONFERENCE, lunch at the same time. The rest is different – Again be sure to let us know if you will be attending and eating.

See you at Rotary This Friday - Bring a Guest
