Todd Evans REPORT FROM FRIDAY'S ROTARY MEETING

Kevin Heitz, our version of Gerald Ford (President by default after a resignation), rang the bell and got us started on a warm spring afternoon. Jeff Solterman and Katie Orgish provided the greetings. Randy Verticchio, fresh off another school year, invoked. Brian Ganz stood at the front while the club led him in song. John Kay assisted on piano.

Announcements were their usual riveting self. Katie Orgish passed the envelope, looking for support for the club's Relay for Life team. Noel Beard mentioned that we are responsible for operating the Ferris wheel in Community Park. News to me. Brian Ganz is now in money collection mode for the Dodger game on July 16 in St Louis. Kurt Gwillim is arranging a meeting with other civic groups to see about reviving the 4th celebration. Anne Jackson said you could buy copies of the group photo taken in front of the Old Post Office. Kevin Heitz has raffle tickets available to win Keith and Phyllis's trip to Branson.

Lori Hall and Katie Orgish sponsored Hillary Estes as a guest. Hillary works at Nestle and has taken an application to join us. Tom Atkins brought his son David and his daughter Elaine. Tony Williams brought his wife Jan. She has recently taken a job with BB/BS.

Todd Evans led Recognitions. Cathy Littleton-Wahl thanked Alban Haxhinasto for all of the work he put in translating for Cecilia's family while they were here. He also hosted her parents as well. Tom Atkins recently celebrated his 35th wedding anniversary. Lynne Pennel's ninth grandchild was born recently.

The program was given by Dr. Tara Ramsey. She is fairly new in town and is a primary care physician. She handles adults only, no one under 18. She tries to focus on prevention of problems.

Jacksonville Rotary meets every Friday at noon at Hamilton's
