CRUISE NIGHT CARNIVAL TICKETS

At Rotary last Friday Fred Clinton had posters and tickets for the carnival which Rotary is sponsoring at Community Park Cruise Night weekend. Rotarians were asked to help get posters around and to help pre sell tickets. The carnival along with ferris wheel that weekend has potential to be a major fundraiser for our club. Advance tickets are $10. a sheet of 18 tickets.

Each member was asked to sell one sheet. Carnival rides take multiple tickets based on ride. Benefit to club of advance ticket sales is that we have the money regardless of weather that weekend and in most cases person who has sheet of advance tickets will probably buy more tickets once they get to the carnival, so if everyone will take some of these sheets and sell them to friends, family, neighbors, co-workers, etc. we can greatly increase our profit.

More sheets will be available at Rotary.

ROTARY LAST FRIDAY From the pen of Todd Evans

Trent Cain kicked things off with a resounding ringing of the bell for the Noon Rotary meeting on September 2. We were all greeted by Cindy Foote and Kevin Heitz.

Fred Clinton reminded to sign up for the Ferris wheel. Plus, he talked up the carnival that will be in town in conjunction with Cruise Night this year. Fred also had posters available to hang in your place of business. Keith Lape informed the club that Rotary has set up a method to funnel money to the Southeast for hurricane relief efforts. For more information or to donate, check with Keith or Fred Osburn. Mike Schneider had a sign-up for the family fun picnic on 9/11 at Nichols Park. Mike Ludvigsen reminded us to show up to help with the concession stand at the JHS football game. Todd Evans reminded everyone about the sign-up sheet for the youth exchange overnight on 9/10 at the Y.

Tracey Ambrose gave the invocation and Tom Atkins led us in song. We were served up with another Atkins original, 'Put Your Name Down' to encourage us to sign up for various activities.

We had a visiting Rotarian from Ithaca, NY, Matt Dearing, join us. Our other guests consisted of Ed Cannon bringing his daughter Laura Grace and Todd bringing his daughter Abbie. Our darling exchange student from Italy, Cecilia was with us too.

Rotations were given by Fred Clinton, Bob Foulk, Ernie Downey, Allen Stare, Carol Carl, Tom Atkins and Ed Ecker.

The program was very good. A reenactor from Ohio portrayed Harriet Beecher Stowe. She did an excellent job of explaining what life was like for Harriett leading up to the Civil War. She even met Abe Lincoln so right there her standing went way up in these parts.
