THANKS TO THOSE WHO HELPED WITH FERRIS WHEEL ON CRUISE NIGHT WEEKEND!

Cruise Night Carnival Tickets - We need to collect for all outstanding sheets of tickets - still about 20 out – please get this money in this Friday at Rotary.

Follow up on Family Picnic – as noted at Rotary there were many people who made reservations, but did not show up. We had to pay for a lot more meals than what we used, so we need to collect $7 a person from those who said they were coming but did not. Thanks.

ROTARY LAST FRIDAY From the pen of Todd Evans

At 12:04, Trent Cain, rang the bell to start the meeting. The greeters, Lori Hall, Libby Gaige and Todd Evans, shook hands, sold 50/50 tickets and helped people find their badges.

Ray Phipps handled the invoking. Fred Clinton led us in song and he was accompanied by Sharon Zuiderveld on the piano. Shawn McCombs provided us with an opportunity to volunteer at the Governor Duncan mansion on October 7. They are hosting an antique show from 10 to 4. Trent Cain hawked Rotary credit card applications and carnival tickets. Anne Jackson gave us an update on the new Rotary Directory. Kevin Heitz pointed out the Goodwill Ambassadors are leading in the points race for the membership contest.

We had a couple of Sunrise Rotarians, Harold Gates and Linda Meece, join us. Amanda Deady, soon to be a new Rotarian from Passavant, joined us as a guest of Diana Olinger. Cecilia has discovered the joys of Rotary and was with us once again.

During Rotations Brian Ganz said something about a Big Brother/Big Sisters Reunion. Mike Ludvigsen's son has been promoted to quarterback of the Routt JV team. Noel Beard's niece is a part of the Rotary Exchange program. Helen Kuhn is now an Assistant Registrar at Illinois College. Axel Steuer told us the gentleman from Hotel Rwanda is a Rotarian. Wolf Fuhrig told a funny.

Due to a last minute cancellation, the program was a quick overview from different areas of service. We entered Routt's, JHS', Mac's and IC's homecoming parades. We need a couple more volunteers for Franklin Fun N Food Night on 10/6. We will be doing a clothing drive and a Christmas party for the Franklin kids in the future. The club needs an applicant for the GSE team to S. Korea next year. Ages 25-40 and cannot be a Rotarian. The publicity committee has many projects in the works. Kevin Heitz talked about recruiting new members and getting them involved. Jean Jumper said Interact is doing a membership drive at JHS.
