ROTARY LAST FRIDAY From the pen of Todd Evans

Trent Cain rang the bell at 12:10 to start the meeting for the Noon Rotary on September 30. The warm and heartfelt greetings were given by Allen Stare, Helen Kuhn and Mike Schneider. Tiffany Warmowski did the invoking and Fred Osburn, accompanied by Sharon Zuiderveld, led us in song.

During announcements Rick Mogler reminded us that Fun N Food was on Oct 6th and told those who signed up to be there at 5. Shawn McCombs said he had a good response to help out the Gov. Duncan mansion with their antique show. If more want to volunteer let him know. The shifts are for two hours. Alban Haxhinasto gave the club a run down on what is being done to assist the international students at IC. The students need bicycles and various people volunteered their bikes. Greg Hillis asked for members to ride the Rotary float in the Routt and JHS homecoming parades.

Shawn McCombs brought his brother Mike as a guest. Amanda Canfield came along as a guest with Lori Hall. Amanda Deady received her last free lunch as a guest of Alban Haxhinasto. Next week she becomes a member and it will be time to pony up. Christine Lemke was a guest of Sharon Zuiderveld. Cecilia Amadei cut class to enjoy lunch with us as well.

Brian Ganz taught us all about the sound system for the Ferris wheel. For further confusion, see Brian. Shawn McCombs told us about his brother Mike's new baby, Shawn's niece. Allen Stare told us about his show 'Something's Afoot' at the Jacksonville Theatre Guild. The show finishes its run the weekend of October 7.

Wolf gave us a preview of his column for this past Sunday. He hung the Federal Government out to dry for the base closings. The program was very informative!
