Rotary Last Friday November 11 Todd Evans, fearless reporter

The Jacksonville Noon Rotary met on November 11 as President Trent Cain rang the bell. Tracey Ambrose was the greeter. Announcements: Fred Osborn encouraged members to place money in the little red cups. Mike Schneider said we need greeters for Thanksgiving. We also need song leaders and recognitions for December. Tiffany is still taking pictures so you can be included in the new directory. Rick Mogler started a sign-up sheet for the Franklin Elementary Christmas Party. We also need people to help fill up the treat baskets. Skip Nelson gave the invocation.

John Hill, accompanied by John Kay on piano, led us in song. He also recognized all members who were veterans of the Armed Forces. The guest list had Mark Brockman as a guest of Amanda Deady. Jennie Stare joined us with her dad Allen Stare. Laurie Evans, wife of Todd, was able to join us. Brad Wilson came disguised as an indigent defendant. Larry Kuster provided representation for Brad. Fred Clinton brought Cassie, his daughter, and her friend Lauren. Gordon Jumper joined us from the Sunrise club. We welcomed back Tim Ruppel, a former member. Four new members were inducted. Kent Kilpatrick was inducted. John Power sponsored him. Brian Ganz sponsored Katie Orgish. Bob Hill joined at the request of Keith Lape. Amy Peters transferred from the Sunrise club. Lori Hall sponsored her.

Mike Schneider led recognitions. John Hill and Fred Clinton were Sergeants-At-Arms. Rotations: Glenn Olinger, the lone White Sox fan, reminded everyone who won the World Series. Most were surprised to hear that Chicago has a second baseball team. Judy Tighe announced that Main Street won some awards. Father Ken wished good luck to the Routt volleyball team.

Dick Rawlings introduced the program given by Colonel Forrest Keaton. He is a member of the Air Force Reserves and is a local attorney. He told us what it means to be a veteran and the obligations that go with being a free people.

See you at Rotary this Friday, Bring a Guest!
